PRESIDENT'S REPORT

G'day and welcome to this month's Free Wheeling.

We have a few interesting trips coming up, one of which is the day trip Gerrard has organised where we will be showing some children from the BAT (Boys Alternative Learning) program a bit of fun four wheeling in the bush. We will need at least 10 vehicles to help out with this trip and numbers are required at the next meeting.

We also have the advanced driving course this month where we will be tackling some of the more difficult tracks in the O'Tooles area, as well as explaining some advanced recovery techniques.

Melbourne Cup weekend is coming up and we need someone to lead a trip over the four days. Remember, if there are some places you would like to visit and don't feel comfortable leading the trip yourself, have a word to Ashley, and he'll be able to help you out or organise someone to run the trip.

It was great to see some of our visitors who attended last month's meeting come on the day trip to Mt Disappointment. It was David's first taste of four wheeling in his new truck and he did a fantastic job on some reasonably tricky tracks. I wonder if his pulse rate has come down yet. If you see some new faces at the meeting, go and introduce yourself and make them feel welcome.

There are still a few members yet to pay their membership fees. IF you have forgotten to renew your membership, could you please send it in as soon as possible. Also, anyone who has an e-mail account could they make sure Lesley has the address so we can keep you informed of any relevant information or events as soon as we can.

That's all for now. Keep well and I'll see you at our next meeting at Highway Tyres.

- Election of new Committee:
  - Michael Coldham was re-appointed as President for two years.
- A new National Park is planned for the area south of the Princess Hwy from Winchelsea to Cobden down to the coast.
  - This would effectively close the area to horse riders, trail bike riding, bee keeping, camping, wood collecting, farming, logging, and 4 wheel driving.
  - Local clubs in this area have carried out extensive track surveys of this area and together with the Association will form a plan to fight these closures.

- 28 huts were demolished in the bushfires and Parks Vic plan to rebuild 13.
- The Association is asking clubs to concentrate on track surveys for the next six months. Will ascertain what areas are needed.
- Social events held in State Parks with more than 30 people require a permit.

TRIP REPORTS

ANNUAL SNOW TRIP – August 2003

Trip Leader:	Glenn	Jackaroo
Participants:	Barry	Patrol Tray
	George	Musso
	Carl and Bethany	Surf
	Murray, Anna and Bianca	Cruiser
	Mark	60's Cruiser
	Anthony, Aline and Riley	Prado

I met George about 1.00pm Friday at Officer. Cruised along to campsite 14, arriving about 4pm. Started putting camp together for our two night stay. The weather was quite mild, warmer than expected. Barry arrived about 9ish, and after a few sherbets and a good gas bag, we headed for bed.

Arose Saturday morning to a chilly damp morning. It was eggs and bacon for breakfast while waiting for the others to arrive. With some chatter over the CB to confirm our whereabouts, the other four vehicles started crossing over to Camp 14.

After some chit chat, Murray and his girls started putting up their tent, so gave them some time to do this, then it was time to head off to the white stuff.

While sitting at the entrance to get onto the main road, a small convoy of 4 x 4's flew past. They were in a big hurry. Once on the road ourselves and heading up, we passed a couple of them stopped for some reason. Got to Benningson's Lookout to find that Parks had done some clearing; they had just bashed down some trees, and cleared the view. Wow!! what a beautiful view it was - the white capped peaks looked magic.

Stopped at Lost Plain for a bit of a snowball fight, and to make some yellow donuts. The snow was thick as. Not as many cars parked there as I would have thought; would have been great for cross country skiing.

Headed off again, up through Arbuckle Junction and on to the car park just down from the gate. Here it was on again with the snow ball fight. A bit of a slope to slide down on a piece of plastic, or a bit of tarp. The kids had a great time, didn't you Carl, Murray, Anthony, and the three girls. Riley was a little upset because he was not accustomed to the cold. We had lunch, then a bit more of a frolic, then it was time to hit the frog and toad.

Thought we might try and find a hut or two, but of course I was not sure where to go, so we turned back and headed for camp. Carl and Mark thought they would try a side track.

Back at camp, with fire wood collected, and fire started, it was time to warm up. We heard some splashing and screaming coming from the river. On looking down, Anna and Bianca were crossing, not by the rocks though, just straight through the water. So a couple of girls definitely needed the fire.

After dinner and the fire stoked up, it was just general chatter about the day, and what we had seen on our travels. Some great pictures were taken and loads of fun had by all.

Glenn

P.S. Missed another one Dave !!!

MT DISAPPOINTMENT DAY TRIP

Sunday 21 September 2003

Trip Leader:	Ashley, Lesley & John	Cruiser
Participants:	George & Ruth	Musso
	Tom & Sheila	Cruiser
	Roger	Cruiser
	Derek & Janet	Disco
	Carl & Bethany	4 Runner
	Gerrard	4 Runner
	Craig & Fran	Cruiser
	James, Kathryn & Callum	Jeep
	David, Joanne, Abigail & Michael	Patrol

The day started off windy but sunny – looked like it was going to be a great day.

We met at the Shell Servo Westgate Bridge at 8.30am (9 vehicles met there – Derek had a flat tyre back at home and met up with us later). Headed off towards Wallan then turned off towards Bruces Creek where we hit the gravel. Our first track was rocky and bumpy – this was Mt Disappointment Road. Roger stuck fast in a big puddle along the way and everyone got out for a sticky beak but we were soon on our way again. We continued along this track and got to the top for a look at the view. It was a disappointment! Further along the track we stopped for morning tea – gave ourselves a top up, the kids had a play, and then back on the track. We traveled uphill, turning left into Engine Camp Road and on through some scrub. A little way along we had to stop as there was a huge fallen tree that was inconveniently blocking the track. John helpfully directed everyone around without too much trouble. We continued down the track and turned left into Main Mountain Road (2wd again) then right into Escreets Road – dirt track, lots of puddles. Derek got grounded here but was soon on his way. We continued down this track and reached a steep decline where we shifted into low range, back into high and on we went. We veered left at the bottom of Main Road (2wd), passing Sunday Creek Reservoir. Ashley then led us onto another track – The Pipeline – which from the bottom looked like a bit of a challenge. Ashley tested the track (up and back) and we were given the option of tackling it or going the easy way. Everyone opted to take the Pipeline. Ashley led the way through a few tricky spots up a steep and rutted hill.

Then onto Harry's Nose West Road going left and then down past the picnic ground again. We continued on and finally stopped to take a look around Sunday Creek Reservoir, the capacity of which is very low.

We hopped back into the vehicles for one more track – left onto Raynor Road, then turned right and found more water. This track was a bit winding and had a few tricky ruts but all was ok. We then made our way back to the main road and headed for home.

On the way home – just before the turnoff onto the freeway – Gerrard lost his brakes. With a little bit of help from Carl, Craig and Ashley he was back on the road again. One great reason to join a club – there's always someone to help get you home!

All in all it was a fantastic day. The weather was great, the driving great, with a great bunch of people. Thanks to Ashley, Lesley and John for leading the trip.

James & Kathryn Holden

We all made it successfully and continued on, turning left at Westcott Creek Road, then right into Anderson Garden picnic ground (good spot) for lunch.

After lunch we headed down Boundary Road, left into Western Break Track for a while and veered up Quarry Road travelling fairly smoothly, then ended up at Harry's Link Road – another track with plenty of puddles (which I might add smelled horrible!).

Many thanks to David Dawn for the photographs.

'THE SULPHUR DEBATE'

more from Berrima Diesel Service

I've been meaning to sit down and whip up this topic sooner, but as it's only the two of us on the spanners here, I've been too flat out!

Anyway, I'd just like to quickly run through this terribly misleading Diesel Fuel debate and give you some clarifications from the pros – Berrima Diesel! You've probably been reading about "Horror Stories" (like up in Queensland) of the removing or reducing of sulphur in diesel fuel, These stories would lead one to believe that pump damage will occur and seals will leak. It is heavily published as being so in leading 4wd publications, TV and even by "so-called" Diesel Industry Associations!!

This is all wrong and misleading!!!! We at Berrima Diesel have been saying from day one that if it leaves the nozzle as international and Australian standards dictate (and I wish the Federal Government would prosecute if it wasn't), the fuel will have all the characteristics that it was intended to have. Rudolf Diesel didn't have these standards to assure him when he built the first diesel fuel system. He was using vegetable oil (peanut oil was one of them!) and it worked for him. Let's not forget that there never really was diesel fuel then as there is now. Diesels then and today will run happily on a light oil (if a tad smoky) without refining.

One of the "stories" being told about removing the sulphur is that it reduces the lubricating qualities of diesel fuel. This is true BUT a we have always said (and we now have it backed up by Shell) it will have to pass lubricating standards before being labelled "diesel". Even if it needs lubricants adding (again Shell backs this up)!

The other "stories" flying around about pump seals leaking is another bit of a con. Even Shell has a little excuse for it, but I don't fully believe that! Yes, composition does have an effect on the seals but we have now new and old 4wd rotary pumps leaking – and not all the seals in the pump leak. These O-ring type seals have to cope with a lot of adulterated diesel. Adulterated diesel can contain (and we have seen it contain!!) some highly aggressive (to injection components and seals) substances. This, combined with pump fuel operating temperatures running higher than manufacturers could believe (we've tested fuel temps in hot weather up over 80°C coming out of the pump. Pump manufacturers say to stop testing pump delivery on the test bench once fuel temp goes much over 65° C) leads to (usually the thing leaking) the top cover seal contracting or expanding, twisting and then leaking. Certain questionable diesel industry bodies saying that 'once the seal is replaced with a new one it won't happen again' is misleading!

Diesel 4wd owners and potential buyers (if they are still even interest in buying a diesel 4wd) should not read too deeply into the problem, keep their fuel receipts and hammer their local Federal Member about the problem.

Barbara has been doing this for a while and although they would never recognise it (a member of the public bringing it to their attention) has actually achieved discussion and proposals happening in Federal Parliament as we speak. We will keep you updated on this issue.

One last thing while I'm fired up. BP has officially announced that they are doing a back flip on the sulphur debate. They have finally realised that sulphur reduction is NOT causing the leaks but instead it is the change in aromatics. I wonder what next will be blamed!!!

We still say... "A mixture of adulterated illegal fuel and/or old age!!"
