News From The President

Hello and welcome for yet another issue of the VFWDC monthly magazine.

By the time everyone gets to read this magazine, most of the busy Easter trips will have been completed and everyone should be safely home.

We had a good number of people away from the club over the Easter weekend, probably the most we have had away on a single weekend for a long time. It is good to see the variety of trips which is on offer in the club magazine at the moment, and even better is seeing peoples names appearing on the trip forms at the meetings.

Our club is all about being able to find the time to get away on any variety of trips whether it is a day trip, an overnigher, a weekender or perhaps even longer type of trip away. Whether it is by yourself, a small group or even a larger group.

Over the next few months, the committee will be putting together the regular trips, social events and also training events that normally take place on a yearly or bi-annual basis.

We have booked in 2 dates for this year for the regular working bees up in the Aberfeldy area, we have booked the annual Xmas in July back at St.Annes winery, and we are looking into the First Aid refresher course for the second half of the year as well (which is now a bi-annual event). Please keep an eye in the magazine Trip Calender for when these events are to take place.

At the April meeting expect to hear a lot about the trips that have taken place over the busy March period, because we had a lot of trips run in March due to having 2 long weekends in the one month.

April is looking a bit quieter at the moment, as no-one has yet put a trip notice in for the Anzac weekend

If anyone is reading this magazine on line, and is not yet a member of a club, please feel free to come along to our monthly meeting in Noble Park and come and say giddyay to a committee member and introduce yourself, we are a friendly bunch of folks and I'm sure you will be made to feel very welcome as a guest at our meeting.

So whatever your plans are over the coming weeks and months, I hope you get a chance to go out and enjoy our great outdoors.

Accept– James

Seconded –Phil

Matters out of Minutes

Old sew on patches found and now on sale – 10 left. They aren't exactly the same colours as we have now but are suitable.

Carolyn talked about other items we could look at selling – bags and backpacks. Show of hands were asked for but no interest was generated.

Upcoming Club Trips (Trip forms down the back of the meeting on the bench)

Bruce - discussed the Huts trip – will be the best one yet.

Dave – Wonnangatta trip in over the mountain from Dargo

Max - Wiperfield trip Murray Sunset – trailers ok.

Brett – Source of Murray Trip. Drive as far as can go, then walk the remainder of the way in

Stuart discussed Micks trip - Pinch River – Barry way South of Jindabyne

Carolyns almost 40th birthday bush bash 14/15th bush escape Little O'Tooles.

Bruce – Portland Buggy Club trip coming – need to download membership form and pay 2 weeks before going.

Dave – Discussed a close arrangement with Bellarine 4wd club for future trips in each others districts

General Business

Editor position vacant, there was a slight mis-communication between editor and the committee with which magazine was to be the final Amanda was available to do, so Apologies from the Committee to Amanda.
Dave and Carolyn will do it until AGM.

Communications Policy V1 draft has been completed by Ben. V2 will be out for next committee meeting with some changes and updates.

New Club Brochures. Looking very professional. Great job done. These were handed out at Wandin, and put into the showbags at the 4wd Vic stand.

Association Report

President and Delegates Meeting at the Association club rooms (same Saturday as driver training). David and Tony will attend.

Wandin was good. Dave was excited. The Committee will see what happens next year if we go back and actually run our own club stand. Although rumours have it that it maybe at Lardner Park as the current site has been sold and the owners are charging much higher costs than previous years.

Club Trips Been and Gone

Wombat Trip report by Tony. (see trip report in magazine)
Relaxing and fun trip with a courtesy bus to take them to the Pig and Whistle pub
Did some tracks around Lerderderg
Ben n Claire had their kids camping for the first time and had a ball...
Tony got brownie points for arranging flowers for his wife whilst at the pub.

Raffle drawn

Max took the first aid kit
Sam took the drag chain
James (new member) took the Grease Gun
Charlie gets the spot/reversing light

Dave thanked everyone for the night.

To: All association club members.

Our association treasurer, John Farlow, has recently decided to leave the board. We would like to thank John for the great work he did in bringing the association's finances back under control and into excellent shape especially after what he was presented with when he joined the board at the start of 2014. All members should be extremely thankful of the knowledge that John brought to the position and the huge effort that he put into producing excellent financial reports, presenting these at association meetings and providing guidance to the board and office on the association's spending and budget. He also chaired the business and finance sub-committee which was focussed on the financial operation of the association.

As a result of John's departure the board is seeking applicants to fill this position. If you have experience in such a position, including a working knowledge of MYOB and financial operations in a Not For Profit organisation, we would be keen to hear from you. Qualifications such as being a current, or recent, CPA would be preferred but all reasonable applications will be considered.

Please feel free to contact myself at either of the numbers below if you are interested in applying for this position.

Thanks,

Damian Stock

Friday 11th March 2016.

The group all ended up at Sheep yard flat but the funny thing was we were in different places. All finding the group on Saturday. Moral to this story is be more specific about the meeting place when the camp ground is going to be full.

Stuart parked next to this sign. I thought it funny.

Saturday 12th March 2016.

First adventure was the walk through the rock tunnel. Eliza enjoyed the piggy back through. The spider webs deterred some, but there was a brave few who said it was worth the effort.

Next stop Upper Jamison Hut, then on to Refrigerator track, and Bluff hut. We then proceeded to Lovicks hut. This track challenged the group but we all managed it. Mt Lovick is 1684mts and the hut sits close to the top. It's a bit like you are at the top of the world. We decided to head down to Bluff hut again, and along 16 mile Jeep track and to Bindaree Hut. Everyone is travelling great so off to Fry flat for our overnight camp. A camp fire was enjoyed set in the back drop of the river and gum trees.

Sunday 13th March 2016.

Sunday Morning, ooopps someone has a flat battery. Nothing better than the boys discussing mechanical issues. Sometimes it's as simple as picking up a hitch hiker stick.

Maree Bowker

We took a stroll to visit Bindaree falls and it's breathtaking. This is looking up at the falls, and the following shot is standing under the rock ledge. Its moments like this I just think how special our country is.

HUTS TRIP Day 2 Sunday 13th March 2016

Sunday started with everyone up around 7am and cooking breakfast and having our cuppa's, then packing up camp, today Tony and I being trip leaders, first on the list was to Bindaree Falls we went up sixteen mile jeep track with a river crossing with Tony helping Tim and Cara get across which they did no worries, we then continued on to Bindaree Falls where we had morning tea and walked up to the falls which was beautiful and got a club photo under the water fall.

Next we heading to Craig's Hut via Monument Track, but Tim and Cara headed around Circuit rd and meet the rest of us at Craig's Hut, Monument track was steep in sections and quite rocky and challenging (shaken but not stirred) but alot of fun with smiles at the end of it, even Norman had a big grin after losing a mud flap that Sandra and Max kindly collected for him, then arriving at Craig's Hut was nice to see some horse riders there which made for some great photo's in the spirit of The Man From Snowy River, had lunch sitting under the tree's looking out over the beautiful view's of the mountain tops, after Jack and his girlfriends at the back of Craigs Hut.

From Craig's Hut Steve and his mate Tim stayed behind to take more photo's then heading home, also Peter and Jo, Tim and Cara left us to also head home from Craig's Hut the rest of us continued on to Speculation rd to Kings Hut where we stopped to stretch our legs.

After Kings Hut we headed up cobbler Lake Track where we hit peak hour with another 4x4 club heading down the track right on the worst possible place where the track was narrow and steep, the other club had 12 cars so we had to split our group in two to allow the cars to get past us, with some quick thinking from Tony and Shane we got everyone past safely, then regrouped and continued onto Lake Cobbler where we camped for the night right on the edge of the lake.

Getting the camp fire ready which Max is up for the challenge.

Woke up Monday morning to the lovely view of Lake Cobbler, had breakfast and packed up camp again and left by 9:30am and headed back to King Hut via Little Cobbler Track which was a easy drive had our morning tea here then headed to Pineapple Flat which had 6 river crossing, and thankfully Shane had a hanky on standby for me as I wasn't driving I heard a Ouch across the radio from Norman on one of the crossings as he bottomed out on the rocks, had a relaxed lunch at Pineapple Flats then Stuart took over the lead down the mountain where we aired up at the car-park at the start of Mt Bulla where we all said our goodbye's. We would like to Thank our assistant assistant secretary to the assistant secretary to the Treasurer Shane for guidance and maps along the way, and a BIG thank you to Bruce for putting the trip together, and lastly like to thank Stuart for being our Trip Leader mentor

TRIP REPORT—DRIVER TRAINING

Baw Baw training weekend.

The weekend started with a spectacular drive in over the Thompson Dam, which was a little low, but not as bad as we thought it would be.

There obviously hadn't been any rain recently as the dust was pretty bad on the drive in to O'Tooles. The drive in was very scenic with 3 small river crossings lots of hills and lots of little campsites popping up as you rounded bends.

Saturday's training started with some vehicle inspections and the art of driving through the brakes when on steep hills was explained to us and practiced.

We then had a break for a bite to eat and took off onto the tracks. They started off pretty steep straight away, or so we thought and the vehicles all managed to climb up and down with ease. We came to a few harder bits and the heart started pumping a bit more when we all tackled a steep rock outcrop. Once again we all made it up.

We started to head back down and stopped to gather some firewood on the way, so Phil and James got out the chainsaws.

We were then off again back down the mountain where unfortunately James did the CV in the front drivers wheel and now only had a three wheel drive.

We all made it back to camp ok and everyone welcomed a coldie or two as the temp was fairly warm.

The bush mechanics James and Kyle got to work and started to pull apart the CV on James car which they managed to get it to a safe drivable condition where they were able to continue with the trip.

We all settled in for a bit of dinner and a few drinks and I think that Jo could possibly owe Stuart a bottle or two of Maree's wine. Thanks Stewart.

David and Carolyn showed up for Saturday nights camping and to everyone's surprise, David didn't have any firewood. (we had plenty anyway)

With a good night sleep and maybe just a couple of little hangovers we got up to tackle Sunday. Homework was done cars packed up and we were off again.

It soon became obvious that Sunday was going to be a little more challenging. Ash was out in front with John behind the wheel and we would get a description from Ash every so often about a little rocky outcrop or a bit of a decline. It soon became apparent that when Ashley say's small rocky outcrop and a few ruts, it really means boulders and deep chasms ahead; we all had a good laugh.

Some of us had to readjust our lines in a couple of places and have another go, but with everyone's confidence growing by the minute, we all came through the weekend unscathed.

We finished off with a river crossing at the bottom of the dam, which every got through easily and Bruce took the opportunity to wash as much of his car as he could.

It was a wonderful experience. A lot of knowledge was gained and we met some great people.

Special thanks to Phill, Ashley, Bruce, John and Stewart for sharing some of your knowledge with us.

Definitely worth doing, Joanne Tonkin.
